ADVOCACY

Borders Independent Advocacy Service (BIAS)

Drug and Alcohol Dependency Advocacy Service

BIAS can provide 1-1 advocacy support to people in the Scottish Borders, 16 and over, who have current or historic issues around treatment and access to services.

An advocacy worker can:

- Discuss your rights and opinions with you to make an informed choice
- Support you at meetings and communicating with staff to ensure that your voice and views are heard

Scottish Government have developed a set of standards to support people with substance use issues.

We work within the MAT 8 standards

Standard 8 says "All people have access to independent advocacy support for housing, welfare and income needs"

If you think BIAS can be of help, please download our referral form via the link on our website BIAS
